On Charges of Adulterating Ale, Brewery Indicted

Grand Jury Proceeds Against Massachusetts Breweries Company.

State Board of Health Complain of the Use of Sulphur- ous Acid.

On the charge of selling adulterated beer, the grand jury of Suffolk county today returned an indictment against the Massachu- setts Brewing Company. This company practically controls the beer and ale traffic of New England.

Charge on Which Beer Combine Is Indicted

That the Massachusetts Breweries Company adulterated ale by charging it with sulphurous acid. Sulphurous acid is a solution of sulphur dioxide in water. It is a heavy, corrosive, oily, liquid, colorless when pure, but usually yellowish or brownish.

Struggle to Escape Northward Continues With Courage of Desperation, but Japa- nese Report Retreat Cut Off--Enemy Pressing Both Flanks of Defeated and Shattered Host of the Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 11.—The Czar has received this report from General Kuropatkin, commander-in-chief of the Russian Manchurian army:

"Our retreat is being conducted with the enemy harassing both our flanks.

"The second army, under Biderling, has suffered the heaviest in killed, wounded and prisoners. How many are surrounded is unknown. The army is still in danger."

There is a rumor that the Czar is considering a special council to consider conditions of peace. The desire for peace is gaining ground, although the war party insists that another army of 400,000 be sent as soon as practicable to the Far East.

WORCESTER CLUB FIRE TRIPS WILLIAMS

RICH MEN FLEE IN NIGHTWEAR FROM MID-NIGHT BLAZE—LOSS $15,000.

WORCESTER, March 11.—Four wealthy members and a guest narrowly escaped death today (today is the day) through the fire which broke out in the Worcester Club, the most exclusive organization of the kind in the city.

The club members who were trapped by the flames were Charles Burton, Charles F. Aldrich, a partner of Congressmen Rockwood Hall, and Mr. Mary John Hall, sixty years of age, who was sleeping at the club as a guest of one of the members.

Although all of the men were asleep on the third floor when the fire was discovered, the members who were familiar with the building, because he lived and was alone, were awakened and were able to escape.

BEATEN REMNANTS NEARLY DESTROYED

TOKYO, March 11.—Official dispatches from the front indicate that the Russian army has become a wild rout. The Japanese are pressing forward, with the Japanese army on the north and will prevent the Russian army from retreating.

By the words movement a large force of the Russians was captured. The Russian army now facing the Japanese is a mere remnant of the original force.

WHOLE ARMY DOOMED.
It may seem incredible but that the Japanese movement will succeed, and that the entire Russian army will be cut off.

RUSSIANS CUT TO PIECES.
The Russian host heavily driven these months. The heavy guns of the Japanese were trained on the Russian and wrought awful havoc in the ranks of the untrained enemy, whose only thought was to get beyond range.

GIRL TEACHER WAS POISONED

Paula John, Late of Radcliffe, Visits Clergymen After Chloroform Dose.

Learned two daughters to the BOSTON AMERICAN, say that Miss Paula John, a teacher of languages, who was formerly a student at Radcliffe College, is currently in from chloroform, administered in the St. Hood Wright Hospital, New York, to which she was taken only today.

POORLY, lack of friends and ill-health are put down as the causes which led to her present predicament.

Miss John came to this country six years ago from Germany, determined to support herself and not be dependent on her step-mother.

RUSSIAN LOSSES 200,000 MEN IN MUKDEN BATTLE

Special Cable to Boston American.

LONDON, March 11.—Two hundred thousand Russian have been killed, wounded, captured or are missing, according to estimates from Mukden and Tokyo. Oyama's Japanese have been in the hands of the Russian's since the battle of Mukden.

The remainder of the original 200,000 men of Kuropatkin's command are still fighting bravely to cut a way of retreat through the surrounding Japanese.

With this loss, the Russian army is reduced to a small force, and the Japanese are now in a position to advance on the Russian's.

OFFICERS DEMAND TRUCE.

St. Petersburg, March 11.—The Russian officers have demanded a truce, stating that the Russian's are exhausted and that the Japanese are too strong.

RUSSIAN RETREAT CUT OFF.

All these things lead to a successful Russian retreat. The Russian's are now in a position to advance on the Russian's.

NO BASIS FOR PEACE TALK.

It does not seem to be definitely known whether the Japanese or the Russian's now hold the initiative. It is probably in Russian hands.

MODEL STREET GIRL GRADUATES OBJECT TO WEARING $3.50 GOWNS

THE GIRLS' OPINIONS AND MRS. BOUTWELL'S

Miss Vivia Glendon of the senior class, "I don't see what right the school board has to dictate to us."

"It is perfectly horrid," Miss F. Ayers.

"We would hate to be limited to the cost of our dresses. Graduation from a high school only occurs once in our lives," Miss Marian Otis.

"Why should we be deprived of the right to dress as we like? Even $10 would barely purchase the trimmings of an ordinary gown," Miss F. D. Clough.

One month ago Mrs. Harvey L. Boutwell said: "I think $10 a sufficient sum for the girls to pay for graduation gowns."

Mrs. Boutwell today: "White gowns and mortar boards, not to cost more than $3.50."

There is opposition, strong and outspoken, among many fair members of the Maiden High school graduating class, who have been assigned to wear white gowns and mortar boards, not to cost more than $3.50.

"Under this gown the pupils may wear any sort of dress they desire. It is not the school board's business to dictate to us," said one of the girls.

OWNER OF MISSILE IS BLOWN TO PIECES; WOMAN KILLED; MANY HURT.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 11.—A plot to assassinate the Czar or one of the highest officials of the Russian empire was frustrated today, the police believe.

The owner of the bomb, a man named Alfred H. McWilliam, was instantly killed as the bomb exploded. The bomb was thrown from a balcony of the hotel where he was staying.

It is believed the explosion was due to an accident. It happened at a school for day, and brought thousands of persons to the spot. Bombs of another kind were thrown from the balcony of the hotel.

MANY OBJECT TO VERDICT IN STANFORD CASE

Honolulu Public Says Evidence of Murder Was Lacking Before Coroner's Jury.

DOCTOR JORDAN ARRIVES

HONOLULU, March 11.—The verdict of the coroner's jury in the effort that Mrs. Stanford was murdered by means of strychnine in the soldier of the defense criticism here. Many persons declare that evidence was lacking to sustain the conclusion of the jury as to a felonious intent. The verdict was written with the substance of Deputy High Sheriff Hovell. The jurors took less than two minutes to arrive at the verdict.

David Starr Jordan, president of the Leeward Stanford, Jr. University, Thursday J. Hovell, a member of the board of trustees of the university, Captain John C. Hovell, a detective of San Francisco, and Detective Harry Bergstrom, of the San Francisco police department, arrived on the morning steamer.

Dr. Jordan said he had hoped he would have been arriving at the scene of the murder to natural causes. Detectives and Hovell are consulting with High Sheriff Hovell and will later on, and Detective Harry Bergstrom, of the San Francisco police department, arrived on the morning steamer.

CHAPTER VIII.—Continued.

"N that case I remain as I am. It was my father's wish. But I must take proper steps to discover him," he said emphatically. "It is most unlikely that he is dead."

"In that case I remain as I am. It was people know anything of the matter possible," she retorted promptly. "I have not told the lawyers."

"No; not yet."

"That is good."

"I am just waiting to speak, as if you did not want to find those people," he said, unconcerned. "I can't understand you."

"I must find them. Surely, the people who help in my search the better."

I AM A YOUNG girl and desperately in love with a young man two years my junior. He is an artist of fine make-up your mind not to let your thoughts dwell on him so much and give your whole attention to your work. I think you will forget all about him in a few weeks.

Hearst's Boston American Pattern

Girls' Simple and men to be elevated. This design aims at the combination with the activity of child life, and a multiplicity of features would each serve to attract the child's attention. The design is made with a simple child with legs or torso and the bottom full enough to make the child's limbs function to run a race. The figure is patterned at the top with a small head and a generous blouse which is becoming to the child and the blouse may be made of a wide collar of lace which may be used for dress or costume, and may be made of lace or of a general wear. The full blouse allows the child to move his arms and legs. The blouse may be attached, signed with initials or perhaps with a name, with the general pattern of the child of eight years is 34, waist 42 inches wide.

Pattern No. 2709 is cut in five sizes, from 1 to 12 years.
